

You should really just give us the consumers, the right to have and listen to what we want to on xm we pay for it because we want to. we are americans of the land of the free